

Time	Management Track	Tech Track
0830 - 0900	Registration
0900 - 0905	Welcome
0905 - 0950	Robert D. Rodriguez, Chairman and Founder, Security Innovation Network (SINET) Looking Back to Advance the Future - Leading Change
0950 - 1030	Elia Florio, Microsoft Security Response Center The Exploitation Arms Race between Attackers and Defenders
1030 - 1100	Coffee Break
1100 - 1120	Urs Rufer, terreActive AG Detecting Cyber Attacks using Logs
1120 - 1150	ObstdG* Mag. Walter Unger, Austrian Armed Forces Security Agency Cyberdefence as Building Block of the Austrian Cyber Security Strategy  *Colonel, General staff member
1150 - 1230	Patrick Miller, EnergySec / Anfield Group Critical Infrastructure Protection - Separating Fact from Fiction: Just How Vulnerable is Vulnerable?
1230 - 1330	Lunch
1330 - 1410	Pascal Lamia, MELANI & Dr. Alain Gut, IBM Public Private Partnership - Security Experts	Aaron Philipp, PwC USA Leveraging Big Data Analytics for Cyber Security
1415 - 1455	Michel Herzog, ETH Zurich Incident and Crisis Management in the Context of Cyber Risk	Steve Poulson, Bay Dynamics Protect with Visibility & Peter Clay, CSG Invotas The Need For Speed: Respond Quickly to Cyber Threats
1500 - 1540	Peter Gutmann, University of Auckland The Psychology of Computer Insecurity	Roberto Perdisci, University of Georgia Effective Malware Download Defense via Network-Centric Behavior-Based Learning
1540 - 1610	Coffee Break
1610 - 1700	CEO/CISO Podium A mix of CEOs and CISOs from innovative tech companies discuss which difficult challenges innovators are trying to solve today and where the cyber (security) market is heading
1700 - 1730	Cyber Talent Grand Final and Awards
after 1745	Apéro Riche (networking, food and drinks)	